

White Sands Pioneer Group Membership Application

The White Sands Pioneer Group is a nonprofit association of present and former personnel who have worked at White Sands Missile Range. The group's purpose is to recognize and preserve the pioneering efforts and significant achievements which have occurred at White Sands.

Membership is open to all civil service, contractor and military personnel who worked at White Sands or Holloman Air Force Base and to any others who share in the objectives of the organization.

Members pay annual dues of $10. However personnel who started their White Sands / Holloman service before May 1, 1958 (when the name was changed from proving ground to missile range) are exempt from the annual dues. Those personnel are encouraged to contribute dues to help in furthering the objectives of the organization.

To apply for membership, fill in the form below. Please print or type. Applications can be sent e-mail to the Pioneer Group Secretary / Treasurer at quinlanps@zianet.com.
